

Welcome to the Saratoga County Drive-through Horse Farm Tour at Mill Creek Farm

While you travel through the farm, keep your eyes open for the answers to the equine-related questions.

Can you find all of them?

GOOD LUCK!!

- A Horse should consume what percent of it body weight in hay?

---

- How many pounds of hay would a 1000lb horse eat in a day?

---

- How long is a horse gestation?

---

- What is the definition of gestation?

---

- What is a stud or stallion?

---

- What is the name of one of the Stallions at Mill Creek Farm?

---

- How old are foals when they graduate from their mothers milk?

---

- What is weaning?

---

- What is a foal? A colt? A Filly?

---

- If a horse has a reddish-brown coat and the same color mane and tail what color is it?

---

- If a horse has a reddish-brown coat and black mane and tail what color is it?

---

- What is the color of the skin of a grey horse?

---

How many Golden Horseshoes did you find?

Saratoga County
4-H Youth Development is dedicated to providing positive,
hands-on learning experiences to youth ages 5-18.
With opportunities including Community Service, Citizenship,
Animal Sciences,
Robotics, Food and Nutrition, Environmental Education, Shooting
Sports and so much more, youth have the opportunity to discover and grow
their passion.
Call 518.885.8995
to learn how to enroll today!

